The ZEDfactory has been represented in our ZEDpavilion at the World Expo in Shanghai by Mr Chen Shuo, who was employed as our Business Development Manager. Mr Shuo and other companies, such as Zero Carbon Systems and the Zedpavilion company, provided Expo-operational services only for ZEDfactory for the duration of the Shanghai Expo between May and October 2010 . We are no longer involved with any of these companies and Mr Chen Shuo is no longer employed by ZEDfactory. Previously he joined our company after we had designed and won the Shanghai Expo 'Urban Best Practice Area' competition.

We strongly advise anyone wishing to engage with our decades of experience to contact us directly to avoid confusion and disappointment.

Bill Dunster

Principal and founder of the ZEDfactory
